

As of March 25, 2020

We understand that the COVID-19 virus may create travel challenges for our exhibitors and visitors. Currently, many airlines are waiving change fees for new and previously booked travel.

We have provided links to the change fee waiver statements of the major airlines below. We encourage you to check their website to confirm you have the most up to date information for your airline. Please note that the change fee waiver typically allows tickets to be re-booked for future travel with that airline waiving any change fees; the ticketholder is still responsible for any cost difference of the future fair.
