

KJUS

KJUS revolutionizes the market with its Ski, Golf and Lifestyle collections season after season. Be on the pulse of innovation and join our passionate team. Effective immediately or upon agreement, we are looking for an

Apparel Designer Skiwear

(EN/DE, Freelance or full-time)

Your main tasks

- Manage skiwear design process from conception through to final styling
- Conduct market research to identify new trends, fabrics and techniques, and seeking design inspiration
- Collaborate with team members to create seasonal themes, innovation, product and color concept, trims and technical details
- Ensure product is in agreement with business strategy
- Select fabrics and trims
- Create production sketches for development and tech packs
- Collaborate with development team to ensure tech packs are accurate
- Support the team for approval of lab dips
- Review product for style and fit during presentation
- Functional lead of any freelance design teams regarding all design topics
- Present story, mood, color boards, and samples to key accounts and sales teams

Your profile

- Completed studies in design (Bachelor/Master)
- 3 – 5 years of experience in a comparable function
- Profound know-how in designing functional and technical apparel with high affinity for fashion, lifestyle and premium products
- Creative, passionate and straightforward person who likes to work self-dependently but also within the team
- Structured working style
- Profound know-how in MS Office programs and familiarity with InDesign and Adobe Illustrator
- Very good communication skills in English and preferably German
- Passionate Skier

Does this sound exciting to you? Then we should get in touch. We are looking forward to receiving your complete application via <https://kjus.jobbase.io/job/ztda0w5w>.

LK International AG | Rothusstrasse 24 | CH-6331 Hünenberg
Ms Monika Felix | Tel. +41 41 748 08 79

kjus.com