

Staark are a fresh, dynamic cycling apparel company based in London, UK. We create unique luxury cycling clothing. Staark is cut to perfection for each and every shape of rider. We're not all the same, so why wear the same cut?

Designed in London. Made in Europe. Ridden everywhere.

PATTERN CUTTER

Freelance Pattern Cutter required to assist in development of our core line. You will work alongside our design team and product developers.

The ideal candidate will have exceptional knowledge of technical garments, fit, sampling, grading, technical fabrics and production; with a great eye for detail.

The role will be freelance initially. We are based in central London, you will work remotely and only be required to attend the office for meetings as necessary.

You will possess:

3+ years of experience as a pattern cutter within the sportswear industry

Degree in Fashion Design (or equivalent)

Contour Specialist

Passion for cycling

Technical knowledge of garment fit and construction

Fluency in English

Please email info@staark.cc or mail us at Staark Cycling, HR Dept,
151 Wardour Street, London W1F 8WE

staark
CYCLING COUTURE