

26/11/2014

Performance Days breaks records

The organisers of Munich-based functional textile sourcing event Performance Days have announced that the November 2014 edition broke records.

There were record numbers of visitors and exhibitors. Visitor numbers were up by 7.5% year on year at 1,097 and exhibitors increased by 18% compared to November 2013 to reach 124.

Performance Days also included an in-depth seminar and discussion programme.

Image shows WSA magazine technical editor, Sophie Bramel (right) chairing a panel discussion on 3D printing and textiles at Performance Days, November 2014.