US FUNCTIONAL FABRIC FAIR BY PERFORMANCE DAYS TO BE HELD ON JULY 23

US functional fabric fair powered by Performance Days, will take place from July 23-24 July, at the Javits Center in New York. The two day fair, has attracted a strong combination of top textiles manufacturers, suppliers and service providers, along with top sports fashion designers, product managers, purchasing agents, and textiles decision makers representing active clothing and functional wear manufacturers.

Around 70 companies are exhibiting and more than 400 attendees from 12 countries have registered for the Functional Fabric Fair powered by Performance Days. Held in the River View Galleria of the Javits the event will showcase latest trends in fabric development for the functional textiles industry and offer a sourcing marketplace for high performance functional fabrics and accessories. Functional Fabric Fair powered by Performance Days is staged during New York Market Week and co-located with multiple fashion market events at the Javits Center.

Exhibiting companies will present functional fabrics, branded technologies, treatments, laminates, paddings, finishes, and accessories such as yarns, tapes, prints, buttons and zippers. The inaugural event also includes complimentary workshops, industry presentations and professional networking and matchmaking programs.
